Help Children Learn

Knowing when and how to use antibacterial wipes is an important part of learning how to fight germs. Discuss the picture sequences together. Talk about why it’s important to have clean hands before eating or playing. Discuss what might happen if you didn’t clean your hands after blowing your nose or using the bathroom. Invite the child to talk about other times it would be important to use Wet Ones® antibacterial wipes.